

"The United States government did something that was deeply wrong—deeply, profoundly, morally wrong. It was an outrage to our commitment to integrity and equality for all our citizens...

To Macon, to Tuskegee, to the doctors who have been wrongly associated with the events there, you have our apology, as well. To our African American citizens, I am sorry that your federal government orchestrated a study so clearly racist. That can never happen again. It is against everything our country stands for..."
