CLS INNOVATION IN COLLEGE LIBRARIANSHIP AWARD

Recognizes and honors librarians who have demonstrated a capacity for innovation in the following ways:

- Working with or serving undergraduates or instructors in the areas of programs, services, and operations
- Creating innovations for library colleagues that facilitate their ability to better serve the library's community.

At least one of the nominees must be an ALA member to be eligible for this award. Applicants/nominees must be in an academic library setting at institutions fitting the Carnegie classifications of Baccalaureate or Masters Colleges and Universities. Canadian academic libraries are eligible if at least one nominee is an ALA member and if the nominee(s) can demonstrate their institution's status is comparable to the Carnegie classification of Baccalaureate or Masters Colleges and Universities.

Award: $1,000 and a plaque donated by SCELCL.

Nominations due December 7, 2018
