

FEBRUARY 8, 2020 | 3:30 - 6:30 P.M. | MUSEUM OF THE BIBLE

Don't miss your last chance to see the Slave Bible before it returns to Fisk University. Join us for a time of contemplation and commemoration of the role this Bible has played in the African American experience. A roundtable discussion will focus on the public's reaction to Museum of the Bible's Slave Bible exhibit and the Bible's role in social transformation in the 21st century. Following the discussion, the Fisk Jubilee Singers and the Howard Gospel Choir will perform spirituals.

Ida E. Jones, Ph.D., is the university archivist at Morgan State University. She is a published author and book reviewer.

Dr. Jessie Carney Smith

Jessie Carney Smith, Ph.D., serves as dean of the Fisk University Library and Camille Cosby Distinguished Chair in the Humanities.

Dr. Eric Lewis Williams

Eric Lewis Williams, Ph.D., is an ordained minister of the Church of God in Christ. Williams currently serves as the curator of religion for the Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture.
