

ANNUAL C.A.S.E. SUMMIT

Johnson C. Smith University

Carolinas Alliance for Success in Education

Welcome to the Annual Carolinas Alliance for Success in Education (C.A.S.E.) Summit. The Summit brings educators, funders, providers, partners, and community members together to cross-state networking, cross-sector dialogue, deep-dive conversations, and peer learning to create a comprehensive broadband 5G ecosystem.

Who Should Attend

- North and South Carolina NTIA Connecting Minority Communities (CMC) grantees
- Anchor community partners
- University leaders, CIOs, faculty, researchers, students, and other academic enclaves
- Entrepreneurs, service providers, and sponsors
- Government officials

And all like-minded stakeholders wanting to build capabilities and capacity leading to collective impact for our North and South Carolina HBCUs

Format

- Keynote Speakers
- Panel Discussions
- Sponsor Showcases

Topics (but not limited to)

- NTIA CMC Grantee Updates
- Collaborations, Partnerships & Access Provider Relations
- Community Engagement & Workforce Development
- Data Security, Research, and Innovation
- Broadband Policy Advocacy, Funding and Sustainability

More Details to Follow

Mark Your Calendar!

November 29–December 1, 2023

Division of Government Sponsored Programs and Research
Johnson C. Smith University
100 Beatties Ford Road
Charlotte, NC 28216

The Digital Divide Connecting Institutions,
Technologies, and Communities

For more information, contact Dr. Diane Bowles at 704-378-1202/dbowles@jcsu.edu