

The Importance of HBCU Collections and Hometown Treasures

A Student Archival Exhibit and Symposium

Location: Estey Hall Auditorium
118 E. South Street
Raleigh, NC 27601

Date: April 26, 2024

Time: 9am – 4pm

Agenda

9:00am–10:30am	Breakfast, Registration, Popup Exhibit
10:30am–11:30am	The Importance of Archives at HBCUs Speaker: Audre' Vann
11:30am–12:00pm	Break
12:00pm–2:00pm	Lunch & Learn: Hometown Treasures Speaker: Dr. Vanessa Cogdell Moore
2:00pm–2:30pm	Break
2:30pm–3:00pm	Shaw University's Elite: James 'Bonecrusher' Smith, Boxer Speaker: Harold Hubbard
3:00pm–4:00pm	Popup Exhibit

Speakers and Exhibits

Guest Speaker	Andre' Vann, Coordinator of University Archives and Instructor of Public History, NCCU
Guest Speaker	Harold Hubbard, History Instructor, Shaw University
Keynote Speaker	Dr. Vanessa Cogdell Moore, Program Manager Treasures Audience Engagement, National Museum of African American History and Culture
Student Exhibits	Onyinye (Jane) Ugwu: Shaw University Athletics Comfort Olorundare: Leonard Medical School Lemar Catlyn: The Black Church

Lunch & Learn: Community members will gain knowledge and hands-on experience related to the preservation of family heirlooms such as pictures, artifacts and documents.

NATIONAL MUSEUM
of AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY & CULTURE

Smithsonian

INSTITUTE of Museum and Library
SERVICES